New Recruiting Tool Connects Maine Clean Energy Employers to Growing Local Workforce

Maine's Clean Energy Economy is Growing

Maine has the fastest-growing clean energy economy - as measured by new job creation - of any New England state. With over 15,000 clean energy jobs and counting, we're powering the local economy, stabilizing energy costs for Maine people, and fighting climate change.

Connect to Maine's Skilled Workforce

The Maine Clean Energy Jobs Network is the first recruiting tool designed for Maine's clean energy businesses and workers. Use the website to post jobs, recruit skilled candidates, find training resources, and grow your clean energy business in Maine.
